Celebrating Creativity: A Year of Artistic Unity

As we reflect on the past year, we are thrilled to share that in 2024, our art and craft fairs and creative evenings welcomed over 200 talented individuals from various cities across England. Artists and creators from Birmingham, London, Manchester, Liverpool, Oxford, Tamworth, Nottingham, Wolverhampton, and many more came together to showcase their incredible work and passion.

Our events have become a vibrant tapestry woven from the diverse threads of culture, background, and nationality. Each participant brought unique perspectives and skills, enriching our gatherings with a wealth of creativity.

It is truly inspiring to see how art transcends boundaries and unites us all through a shared love for expression.

The success of our projects in 2024 has laid a strong foundation for the year ahead. We are excited to announce that in 2025, we will be rolling out even more innovative projects and events. Our commitment to fostering community through art remains steadfast, and we look forward to welcoming new artists and audiences alike.

Join us as we continue to celebrate creativity and connection in the upcoming year.

Together, let's make 2025 a year filled with inspiration, collaboration, and artistic exploration!

During the three events with Elza, I gained valuable experience, enjoyed meeting wonderful new people—both artists and appreciative visitors—and felt truly happy sharing these memorable moments with everyone.

I have attended a number of events now, both as an artist for exhibitions and as a guest and speaker at creative evenings. I have met some great artists and Crafters, and have gained lots of advice and inspiration along the way.

Events are well organised, and participants are kept very well informed, with a supportive network. I look forward to seeing the organisation go from strength to strength!"

2 UK/UA ARTS FAIR

In November, Birmingham's Reg Theatre welcomed another wonderful event from the UK/UA Arts Fair - an organisation founded by Ukrainian artist Elza Leman. The UK/UA team believe art has no boundaries, and work to unite artists and creators from a range of backgrounds. The November fair focused on the theme of craft and dolls from small business. Attendees were able to shop from a range of products including intricately crafted dolls, made-to-order or personalised gifts, and loads of fun, affordable stocking-fillers and Christmas decorations.

We hope to see you soon at the next event which is the UK/UA Christmas Fair on 6th December from 10am - 5pm at Birmingham Reg Theatre, B1 2PL. Scan QR code opposite for details.

UK/UA Arts Fair Website

Showing my art work at two of the UA UK Art Exhibitions has allowed me as an artist to connect with many talented artists but also connect with viewers to discuss more about my art and me as an artist. It's one of the things I love doing; inspiring others through my art and their lens as it builds a connection and a journey to my thoughts, feelings and motivation. I'm looking forward to attending many others in the future ahead.

WILD About Comics (WAC)

Wild About Comics (WAC) is all about comics for kids! How they're great fun, and can tell stories in a unique way combining words and pictures to offer both positive reading benefits and wellbeing ones too. Cartoonists from The Beano, superhero comic book artists and caricaturists have all helped WAC in their goals.

Since 2015, WAC has worked alongside Rainforest Concern, a charity that has worked tirelessly for over 30 years to protect some of the most diverse and critical ecosystems on our planet.

WAC will be joining us at future UA UK Art Fair events.
